Oh! now there is a jolly craze That's taking every town; A fascination with a phase That's doing people brown.

It's not the latest in coon songs, Or Whitelaw with his knee pants on, No Pelees fearful belching strong. But 'tie Ping Pong.

The water cure and all of that Is now forgotten sure. To Ping Pong it takes off its hat And goes back so demure. Grove Cleveland with his mighty arm Is playing Ping Pong on the farm, Instead of doing wild ducks harm-That's in the barn,

Ted Roosevelt with his strenuous toot. The Panama canal: The Scheutzens and their target shoot

Are all forgot as well, Santos-Dumont has drooped his wings, Marconi's forgotten his machines, And with Ping Pong are doing things, Its praise they sing.

The problem that the single dolls Have worked so hard and long, Why now itself it easily solves; Get a set of Ping Pong . And when it comes to forty high, The lady has him high and dry, For every time she gets his eye-Why it's a pie.

We'll soon have Ping Pong collars on And Ping Pong shoes we'll wear, The stuff we drink will be Ping Pong. When we get on a tear. The shows will have the Ping Pong gag.

Of course we'll have the Ping Pong And everything that has a tag Will be Ping Pong. -Homer Wilson in Examiner.
